

ENVIRONMENT AGENCY

WATER RESOURCES ACT 1991

FISH REMOVAL (ROD and LINE) BYELAWS

The Environment Agency, in exercise of powers conferred on it under section 210 of, and paragraph 6(1)(b) of Schedule 25 to the Water Resources Act 1991 hereby makes the following Byelaws.

Byelaw 1 Application of Byelaws

These Byelaws shall apply to the area (specified in Section 6(7) of the Environment Act 1995) in respect of which the Agency carries out its functions relating to fisheries except the Upper Esk.

Byelaw 2 Interpretation of Byelaws

In these Byelaws except where expressly stated or where the context otherwise requires, all words and expressions used in these Byelaws shall have the meanings assigned to them by the Environment Act 1995, Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1975 and the Water Resources Act 1991 except the meaning of the term “drain” is not confined to that assigned to it by the Water Resources Act 1991

“Upper Esk” has the same meaning as assigned to it in the Scotland Act 1998 (Border Rivers) Order 1999.

Byelaw 3 Fish Removal

(i) No person may remove by rod and line any freshwater fish listed in Schedule 1 from any river, stream or drain, or from the waters listed in either Schedule 2 or Schedule 3 except:

- (a) 15 fish, other than grayling, of not more than 20cm per day.
- (b) 1 pike of not more than 65cm per day.
- (c) 2 grayling of not less than 30cm and not more than 38cm per day.

The size of any fish shall be ascertained by measuring from the tip of the snout to the fork or cleft of the tail.

Byelaw 3(i) does not apply where written permission has been given by the Environment Agency to the owner or occupier of the fishery to dispense with any of these requirements in relation to those fishing the owner's or occupier's waters.

(ii) No person may remove by rod and line any freshwater fish from any stillwaters or canals (other than those listed in Schedules 2 or 3) except with the written permission of the owner or occupier of the fishery.

(iii) No person may remove by rod and line any eels or shad from any waters.

Byelaw 3 shall not apply to any person who with as little injury as possible either returns fish immediately to the same water alive or retains fish in a keepnet or keepsack and then returns it to the same water alive on or before completion of fishing.

Byelaw 4 Amendments and Revocations

- (i) The amendments to existing Byelaws set out in Schedule 4 shall have effect
- (ii) The revocations of existing Byelaws set out in Schedule 5 shall have effect.

THE COMMON SEAL of the ENVIRONMENT AGENCY was affixed on 16th day of December 2009 in the presence of
